

Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) Terms for Service

Our reverse proxy service respects intellectual property rights and complies with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). We encourage our users to do the same.

If you are a copyright owner or an agent thereof and believe that any content or material available through our service infringes upon your copyrights, you may submit a notification of claimed infringement under the DMCA (a "DMCA Notice") to our designated agent as described below.

To be effective, your DMCA Notice must include the following:

- 1) A physical or electronic signature of the copyright owner or a person authorized to act on their behalf;
- 2) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site;
- 3) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit us to locate the material;
- 4) Information reasonably sufficient to permit us to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted;
- 5) A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
- 6) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Please be aware that you may be liable for damages (including costs and attorneys' fees) if you materially misrepresent that material is infringing your copyrights.

Upon receipt of a valid DMCA Notice, we will take appropriate action, which may include removing or disabling access to the allegedly infringing material.
